President's Perspectives . . . Nancy Doughty

It was with regret and appreciation that the Board accepted Annie Foerster's resignation as Secretary at its October meeting. To serve the remaining year of her term, the Board appointed Jean Rowe, recently retired from the Neshoba UU Church in Tennessee. We also welcomed Gretchen Manker to the Board.

The Board wishes to increase attendance at regional UURMAPA conferences even as we acknowledge for some this is a financial hardship. We voted to use Memorial Fund money to give $200 scholarships to the first 4 people registering at each of the 3 regional conferences who are attending for the very first time! These scholarships will be available for the Pan South, West, and Northeast Conferences in 2006.

Thanks to Carl Thitchener, we have a Website, www.uurmapa.org. Check it out. Currently we have the UURMAPA by-laws, the Board Policies and Practices, and Board members listed on the site. In the future, look for copies of Elderberries and information about our Caring Network, under the leadership of Glen Snowden. The Board would like to use the Website as a forum to hear and learn from one another about experiences of retirement from ministry—a “New Day’s Record”—reflections on finding a place in a new church or refashioning a place in an old one. Please contact Andy Backus, who is getting the project off the ground, if you want to help.

As is our custom at the October Board meeting we met with Ralph Mero, and this year with Joyce Stewart, from the Office of Church Staff Finances. How fortunate we are to have these helpful and knowledgeable individuals to assist with our financial planning questions! The Board appointed Marjorie Lynn as our representative to the Council on Church Staff Finances.

With UURMAPA more than 20 years old, the Board is keenly aware we have no written history, but have many records, several stored at Harvard in the archives, and others possibly in your closets. We are grateful to Ted Webb (email: theodorewebb@sbcglobal.net) who has agreed to begin writing a history, but needs resources from which to work. Please, please check with him before sending any material. We don't want him swamped with paper!

Gretchen Manker

Over the years UURMAPA membership has increased so that currently we are 850 strong, including 410 ministers, 280 partners and 160 surviving partners. It's understandable why Elderberries (Aren't we blessed to have Eleanor as editor?) and the Caring Network continue to be important programs for members.

All good wishes as the brilliant days of fall evolve into a snowy winter.

Nancy

Hurricane Matters

Donations: If you have been daunted, as I have, by requests to submit Hurricane donations by credit card to a website, I share Ralph Mero's most welcome information: "Contributions by check to the "UUA-UUSC Gulf Coast Relief Fund" should be mailed to the PO Box that has been set up for this purpose: UUA - PO Box 843155, Boston MA 02284-3155. Donations to support our professional UU colleagues should have the notation "PLCC" in the lower left corner of the check."

Report from Laurel, MS:

Firsthand account by Doak Mansfield, residing in Laurel, MS, shortly after Katrina:

We are good.... tired, sun burned but on the side of the Lord. Peggy, wife, is Red Cross director here...we've been at this for 10 days! 18 hours a day...staying at Red Cross office on air mattresses. Lots of destruction but we have been working with great volunteers to feed and house and help. Remarkable accomplishments! Great people from all over, joining us and working as individuals from can to can't. Our chapter provided the only feeding site in MS for several days...50,000 meals today for population of 120,000! Shelter provided for 600-1000. Finally in last two days we've have gotten some personnel backup help from Nationa Red Cross.

Our house hurt: tree into bedroom and dozens of huge pines down. Haven't had time to worry about it. No power there since last Monday (8/28).....did get rotten frig emptied. Cats OK.

The noblest and greatest spirit has infused this experience by folks in this area (and a bit of the worse)....Red Cross leading the way in the Lord's work!. Ole Clara Barton is proud. Confused, no communication, slow relief.... BUT THE JOB HAS AND IS BEING DONE! Please get on the politicians about much more and hassle free help.

Love and Light - Doak M. Mansfield, 183 Lonesome Pines Road,Laurel, Mississippi 39443

Update October 10: Thanks...we're still at it. Five nights at home since 8/28...we've gotten used to the Red Cross Hilton! House undercover but lots of work left to be done. Last of national Red Cross volunteers left Sat.(some 300 involved overall). 48,000 households aided by this chapter of the American Red Cross...$51 million into four counties of 120,000 people in financial assistance. Local damage assessments (hundreds of homes) and tons on paperwork now the agenda. Check out www.uuworld.org story on Pegs.

Report from New Orleans

UU minister Rev. Marta Valentin was 3 weeks into her ministry at First UU Church Of New Orleans when Katrina hit. The building has extensive water damage and Marta's office was destroyed. The home Marta shared with her partner, Alison Chase, is uninhabitable. Both their libraries are gone and most material possessions. Alison's home church, St. Andrew's Episcopal Church in Newcastle, ME, is gathering new household goods and clothing. First Universalist in Rockland, ME, is helping Marta rebuild her theological library. If you have books you would like to donate, please list author and titles to Grandmoot@aol.com, or Eleanor Richardson, 22 Mechanic St., Rockland, Maine 04841. When we have an address, I will let you know which she needs, and ask that you mail them to her. This seems to me like a direct expression of love and support, and a little like Christmas. It would best to have replacement books that aren't too marked up. Anything that she doesn't need will also be offered to Rev. Jim Vanderweele of Community Church who, too, has lost everything. -- Eleanor Richardson

Regional Conferences

EXTRA! EXTRA! The Board voted at its October meeting to give a $200 grant to four first-time attendees at each of the three conferences, a total of 12 people. There will be a place on the form to check. (You must telephone the registrar to see if you are among the first four).

As previously, requests for continuing education grants for retired ministers and partners should go to Rev Michelle Bentley at mbentley@uaa.org or in writing to her at the UUA, 25 Beacon St, Boston MA 02108. Tel. (312) 945-3122. Attend any conference, regardless of where you live!

PAN SOUTH – Come to sunny Florida in the winter! Feb. 7-9, 2006. We return to the UU Church of Fort Myers, FL. Fort Myers UU Bed & Breakfast will put us up (or a motel if you prefer), with gourmet food by church member Joy Purcell. WE are the keynote - helping Sydney Wilde produce a history of the 1961 merger and its effects on our denomination. She will interview the group and individuals. We will tour the “Seed Project”, an agricultural station developing seeds for different climates and soils worldwide. The seeds are distributed, and local residents instructed by missionaries on how to plant and grow their gardens. In the evening we will enjoy a music program by Don Beaudreau, UU minister in Sarasota. There may be a mystery odyssey. Contact Eleanor Richardson, chair, (239) 263-7760, or Herb Adams, registrar, at (863) 465-1587.

The registration form enclosed in this newsletter is the only one you will receive!

WEST – April 24-27 (date change), at Vallombrosa Center in Menlo Park, CA.

Conversations with Huston Smith each morning, meditations with Kendra Wieman Smith, an afternoon with Ric Masten, and an odyssey by Edgar Peara, who has led a very unusual and interesting life. Flyers are being mailed to members in the Western Region. Others interested can contact co-chairs Al & Mary Thelander, 530-432-4705 or thelandr@nccn.net. Registration deadline will be early January to give the center an accurate count well in advance.

NORTHEAST –October 3-5, 2006 at LaSalette Center in Attleboro, MA. We're just back from a fabulous UURMAPA conference in Attleboro (see photos at left). Infirmities seem to drop away, walkers become invisible, and memories improve when surrounded with old friends. Everyone presenting was wonderful: Bob Thayer, on Native Americans; a costumed conversation between Olympia Brown and Antionette Brown Blackwell by Jan Bowering and Dorothy Boroush; Jim Sherblom on "Making the Most of Your Retirement Dollars," and Farley and Virginia Wheelwright presenting their Odyssey. Registrar is Med Anderson: 353 Fisher Road, Orwell, VT 05760; (802) 948-2508; email is undependable but the address is revmua@aol.com. Judy Mannheim is chair.

Guidelines for Spouses

One issue that keeps coming up in our meetings is Guidelines for spouses/partners after retirement. The UUMA has guidelines for ministers, but who is in a position to offer advice to spouses, who, for example, continue to live in the same town? Perhaps other spouses can share the wisdom learned through experience, as did Dorothy Hopper in the last issue. Spouses and partners are encouraged to submit guidelines for a future Elderberries.

THIS IS AN EXPERIMENT! This is the only form you will receive. We want to send forms to everyone, with a special invitation to those in the Midwest and Mid-South who don't have a conference close by. It also saves postage, now that we have our new bulk permit.

God of autumn

Aluminate us in the clarity of October light,

The splendor of grape, blossom and sienna leaf.

Install the ripeness of wisdom, age,

The mature and steady and patient gait.

Instruct us this latter day

In brave defiance of destructive ways,

In the new breathing of sweeter air

And letting go with easy care.

Caring Network researches Partners

Caring Network members at the Northeast Conference enjoyed meeting over lunch October 5th. Our lack of information on spouses and partners was one issue discussed, and a decision was made to actively seek more. When your caring person calls, s/he may ask you to answer a questionnaire on partners' information. This is to prepare you, so you can be ready to help if you are willing. (Editor's note: Additionally, while the UUA informs us of ministerial deaths, we are less apt to receive word about spouses. Please pass on any information you may have to Elderberries editor.)

The Doolittle Struggle

Sarah Doolittle left her family home to the Trustees of the Universalist Convention of Massachusetts in 1915 to be used as a residence for the elderly. She specified that Universalists should have preference in admission and that a majority of the Trustees of the Home must be Universalists.

The present Trustees are trying to sever the relationship between the Home and the UUA. They have already changed the requirement for a majority of Universalists (now Unitarian Universalists, of course) on the Board by a maneuver that may be illegal. Fighting to maintain the relationship with the UUA is requiring legal help, and attorneys, as everyone knows, are expensive. Please send checks made out to The UUA Fund for The Doolittle Home, Inc. to the UUA, Attention Jerry Gabert, 25 Beacon St., Boston, MA 02108.

Thanks. Peace and blessings, Dorothy Boroush

Health

The New Medicare Prescription Drug benefit is due to take effect soon. Ralph Mero suggests calling your Congressperson for multiple copies of the Medicare booklet. He also recommends How to cover the Gaps in Medicare published by the American Institute for Economic Research. Email: info@aier.org; website: www.aier.org. April 2004. About $8. A concise and easy to understand discussion of health insurance issues for seniors.

Winter Heating Grants from the UUA

The UUA Office of Church Staff Finances is expecting to offer Winter Heating Grants this year to retired UU ministers and surviving family members who request them. We hope to have grants of $300 per person available by mid-December. I believe that the spike in gas and fuel oil this winter will put an additional financial strain on many of our retirees. If more money is needed in individual cases, we will certainly try to assist as much as we can. Contact Ralph Mero, UUA Office of Church Staff Finances, 25 Beacon St., Boston, MA 02108; 617/948-6404. Be sure to include your street address.

How are you? ... What are you doing?

... Any new publications?

Annie Foerster, interim at Northern Hills UU Fellowship in Cincinnati, reports, "I'm really enjoying being back at work. Maybe I just needed a rest (I never did manage in 20 years to pull off a Sabbatical). I also like the knowledge that Interim Ministry is for one year at a time and retiring again when I think it's time will not be as difficult. Also, being bossy by nature, I like being able to say, 'I'm going to tell it to you as I see it because I won't be here next year.' But mostly I like the rhythm and the energy of being involved with a church committee."

Jace Kahn writes: "Seeing John Trowbridge's name in a recent issue leads me to supply the information that the UU Church of Athens and Sheshequin PA, more than 20 years after he had retired, honored him by designating him Minister Emeritus.

Peter Richardson is presenting the Minns Lectures this year: "The Boston Religion – Special Themes Celebrating 375 years!" 7 p.m. Nov. 8–King's Chapel; 10:30 a.m. Nov. 10–First Church Roxbury; 7pm Nov. 15–First Church in Boston (375th Anniv.); and 7 pm Nov. 17– First Parish Watertown, MA.

From Ginny Crane in Southern California: Phil and Sharon Smith have moved from California to Burnsville, NC. Phil is conducting a workshop "Healing Fear to Joy" Nov. 3 -5, in Bardstown, KY. He says, "With the help of meditation, dreams, breath and energy practices, we will work on developing a more awake presence to our own pain and fear and to one another."

The Refugio Study Group for UU ministers meets Nov. 8-10 in Santa Barbara, CA. Lex Crane chairs the program committee this year with Dr. Wade Clark Roof the primary presenter. The theme is "Clarifying the Liberal Religious Voice: Touching the Hearts and Minds of Upcoming Generations."

Doe Lockwood writes that Harry Brobst has moved to: Joplin Health & Rehab, Room 611, 2218 West 32nd St., Joplin, MO 64804. Harry retired from the faculty of Oklahoma State University. He then became a nurse and retired again. He then returned to school and became a UU minister, served the Stillwater church and retired a 3rd time. Before his move to Joplin, the Stillwater church threw him a 95th birthday/farewell party at Eskimos Joe's. According to Carol Fincher, UU minister also retired from Stillwater, Harry is sharp as ever.

From Jean Zoerheide in Maryland: Life doesn't end with retirement! While the minister of the UU Fellowship of Harford County is on sabbatical, Dorris Alcott preaches there occasionally, officiates at ceremonies and is on the planning committee. At 85 she enjoys learning what younger people are thinking. Mary Rose Curtis at River Road has been working with the UUSC to call attention to violation of human rights in El Salvador: workshops, peace march and mock trials. Julie Kuroda lives at Vantage House in Columbia, where she is corresponding secretary, and volunteers in the Little Store and the Health Care Facility. Her hobby is pressing flowers and making greeting cards. Summer took Muriel Davies to Boothbay Harbor for a reunion with her California daughter at the cottage she used to own. Donna DiSciullo and husband Joe Williamson spent June in New England at a place they co-own with friends. In April and May, Robert and Sylvia Lewis were in New Zealand where they visited the National Gallery exhibits. In July, Robert had "roster duty" in the DC area while ministers were on vacation. Mary Ann and Rick Kelley planned a drive to Michigan with five members of the Paint Branch church to visit former members. Marilyn Moors is president of the local chapter of the AAUW in Friendsville. A raffle of one of her quilts and proceeds from recycling books in her little box car have raised money for scholarships. She continues her farmette. Dan and Jean Higgins were given a trip to England by their daughter for their 50th anniversary. Dan preached at Manchester College, Oxford. They were in Bath during the London bombings. Bill Murry's retirement was recognized at the Service of the Living Tradition. In January he will return to Meadville/Lombard to deliver a week of lectures. He is writing a book updating Humanism.

Little Notes with contributions: (from Andy Backus, treasurer)

Greetings from Monica Sharp, widow of Waitstill Sharp, who started the Unitarian Service Committee overseas. He served churches in Wellesley, MA, Davenport, IA, Flint, MI, and Petersham, MD. He died in 1983. Cynthia Ward writes: Sorry I missed Clark's reading – we were in Asheville, NC, at our son Mark's ordination! Brag, brag! But I did get a copy of Clark's poems. Next time the group meets nearby, I hope I can come. Keep up the good work, keeping us connected. From Inge Jack, Dear Friends, with warm regards. I am glad to hear from you.
