

We're excited to welcome Reggie Harris to the Spring 2023 UURMaPA Conference on Monday evening, May 1, at 7:30 Eastern, to share this program:

SANKOFA: A Legacy of Hope in a Troubled World

We live in a time of crisis, challenge and change. Since MLK Jr's "I Have a Dream" speech in 1963 at the March on Washington, people of all ages have measured and contemplating where we are on the road to resolving our divisions into a deeper sense of peace and justice.

Through the lens of song and story, civil rights singer/educator activist Reggie Harris will lean into some of the history and songs that comprise our legacy as we take a look at some recent multi-generational signs that show how we might, in this critical time, use our shared knowledge and courage to find the will to move through and beyond the challenges of our 21st century Red Sea.

In a song-filled Sankofa journey, we will take a look back to look forward to gain a realistic view of activism and struggle.

Reggie offers a personal glimpse of his program HERE (and below).

